NO CIVIC GRANT FOR APPLE FESTIVAL

City Council Unable To Extend Financial Aid To Project Of Mr. Ted Buse

Ald. Shepherd, who was unavoidably absent, was the only member of the City Council not present at the regular fortnightly business session on Tuesday evening.

A communication was received from Mr. R. Whillis, Secretary, on behalf of the Kelowna Community Hotel Co., Ltd., asking that a price be set upon Lot 9, Block 17, Map 462, which would provide a suitable site for sample rooms. The letter concluded with the statement that, "as the hotel is a community effort, and, furthermore, of great advantage to the town and district, the Directors trust that when the Council is fixing the price they will take these matters into consideration."

The Mayor said that, while a price might be set, nothing could be done to effect transfer until the question of title was cleared up, delay in regard to which was due to the illness of Mr. Renwick, who was unable to execute a deed to the City at present.

After discussion, the price of the property was set at $500, provided that, in the event of a sale, there shall be no interference with that portion of the building in use by the City as a police station which encroaches upon the lot in question, so long as the City continues to occupy it.

Report On Dairies

A report from Dr. G. A. Ootmar, Milk Inspector, stated that, owing to lack of statements as to the grading of three local dairies, he had forbidden the sale of milk from them. Tests made of milk from two other dairies showed no pathogenic germs, indicating that pasteurization was being carried out properly.

Cement Sidewalk On Pendozi Street
A formal report for local assessment purposes was received from the City Engineer in regard to construction of the cement sidewalk on the east side of Pendozi Street, from Bernard Avenue to Mill Creek, built last winter. It stated that the total cost was $2,015 for 8,060 square feet, of which quantity 7,676 square feet fronted upon property benefited and 384 square feet upon street intersections, chargeable to the City.

It having been decided to levy the cost of the sidewalk by frontage tax, a resolution was passed setting Monday, December 17th, at 10 a.m., in the Council Chamber, as the date and place of a Court of Revision of the local assessment for the purpose of hearing complaints against the proposed levy or the accuracy of frontage measurements, with all the members of the Council as members of the Court.

A Question Of Tax Refund

In connection with a claim made by Mr. W. J. Marshall for refund of taxes paid for a number of years on land set aside for street purposes, a statement of the case by the City Clerk, submitted to the City Solicitors for their opinion, and the reply of the latter were laid before the Council.

According to the statement, the claim related to part of District Lot 14, Registered Plan 1239, the plan of which was registered in the Land Registry Office at Kamloops on July 29, 1913. A portion of Rowcliffe Avenue and Ellis Street shown thereon passed through part of D.L. 14 of which Mr. Marshall is the registered owner. From information he had received, the City Assessor was of the opinion that the portions of these streets shown in the plan as passing through Mr. Marshall's property were not registered as streets, hence, in fixing the assessed valuation of the portion in question of D.L. 14, he did not make any deduction in the valuation of the property occupied by the streets.

In 1926, Mr. Marshall requested the Assessor again to look into the matter of the streets, and to satisfy him the Assessor wrote the Land Registrar, receiving in reply a letter dated Nov. 13, 1926, to the effect that, by the filing of R.P. 1239 and affixing thereto the signatures of R. S. Hall and W. J. Marshall, adjoining owners, Rowcliffe and Ellis Street extensions were dedicated to street purposes, and in default of that, the Assessor was to make a valuation of the land concerned for 1927.

Mr. Marshall now demanded a refund of all City taxes paid by him from 1913 to 1926 inclusive on the area dedicated to street purposes, and in default of that, he would take legal action.

DATE SET FOR NEXT YEAR'S FESTIVAL

Okanagan Valley Big Musical Event Will Be Held At Kelowna On April 25th, 26th And 27th

The Okanagan Valley Musical Festival for 1929 will be held at Kelowna on April 25th, 26th and 27th. This was decided at a general meeting of the Festival Committee held here recently, which was well attended by local members and representatives from adjacent towns. Vernon was represented by Mrs. T. J. S. Ferguson, Armstrong by Miss V. Dill and Enderby by Rev. Mr. King. Letters were received from other points expressing regret at not being able to attend but assuring the Committee of their interest in the festival.

Several new classes will be added to the syllabus for 1929, including a Junior Mixed Choir (other than the Public School Choir), the North Okanagan Women's Institutes having donated a shield for this class. Other additional classes include: wind instrument, elementary violin, elementary elocution and more vocal duets than formerly. An artistic show card competition for school students up to Grade 9 will encourage it, it is hoped, another branch of art.

The adjudicators appointed are as follows: Mrs. P. J. Ferguson, Gold Medalist for Elocution, Trinity College, London; Dr. John J. Landsbury, Dean of School of Music, Oregon State University, Eugene, Oregon; and Dr. Frederic Rogers, Vancouver, Conductor of Greater Vancouver Choral Society.

DANCES MARK CLOSE OF RUSH SEASON

Packing House Employees Enjoy Relaxation After Hard Work

With the cessation of rush hours in the various packing houses, employees engaged in the packing and shipping of the fruit crop have been staging dances prior to the completion of packing and, in many cases, the return of those who come to Kelowna each year to assist in disposing of the apple crop.

Over seventy-five couples attended the second annual dance held by the staff of the B. C. Orchardists in the Odd-fellows Temple last week, where members of the staffs of Winfield, K.L.O. and town packing houses and their friends gathered together with the staff of the B. McDonald Garage. Supper was served in the lower hall, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. Excellent music for the dancing was supplied by the Kelownians Orchestra, Mr. A. S. Wade officiated acceptably as floor manager, and the arrangements made by the committee in charge left little to be desired.

On Friday evening the Occidental Fruit Co. held a windup dance in the Orange Hall, which was well attended, and the Kelowna Growers' Exchange staff at Rutland held a similar event last night. It is understood that the Kelowna Growers are holding their annual dance in town next Tuesday.

REPRESENTATION AT B.C. MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Local Committee Formed To Raise Funds For Purpose

A subsidiary committee, which has for its nucleus the Okanagan Valley Musical Festival Committee, has been formed to raise funds during the coming season for sending the Kelowna Boys' Choir and other successful competitors in the Okanagan Valley Musical Festival, recommended by the adjudicators, to compete at the British Columbia Musical Festival next year. Major Lindsay Reed has been appointed chairman of the committee and Mrs. H. W. Arbuckle has accepted the office of secretary, while Messrs. W. Maddin, F. Martin, T. Harrison and F. Marriage have also consented to act on the committee.

The St. Andrews' Players of Vernon, whose director, Mrs. T. J. S. Ferguson, is chairman of the Festival Committee, have offered to present at Kelowna the dramatized version of Longfellow's famous poem "Hiawatha" which was so successfully enacted at Vernon a short time ago. The Committee have accepted this generous offer for their initial effort and have arranged for the play to be given at the Empress Theatre on Thursday, November 29th. Selections from Hiawatha's Wedding Feast, by Coleridge-Taylor, will be sung during an intermission.

SEVEN MEN LOST IN BARREN LANDS

OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—Confirmation of the theory that seven men are lost in the Barren Lands of Manitoba while trekking from Fort Churchill to the Hudson's Bay Railway head of steel, and had left the beaten trail in an attempt to shorten their journey, was contained in further details received at the Department of Railways and Canals yesterday. The workers have now been unheard of for eleven days, despite the most intensive search by airplane, dog team, Indian trappers and specially organized parties.

ARMISTICE DAY CEREMONIES AT RUTLAND

Mr. Grote Stirling, M.P., Pays Eloquent Tribute To Those Who Made The Great Sacrifice

That the dead of Rutland and Ellison in the Great War have not been forgotten, and that the Armistice Day service in the school grounds is as popular as ever, was evidenced on Sunday morning, when one of the largest crowds yet assembled met to do honour to the Empire's fallen. On account of the raw, damp weather, the first part of the service was held in the primary room. Mr. J. R. Beale conducted the devotional proceedings, which included set prayers for the occasion. The special speaker was Mr. Grote Stirling, M.P., who delivered an impressive address. He started by quoting Mr. Valiant for Truth's last message, as recorded in Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress": "My sword I give to him that shall succeed me in my pilgrimage, and my courage and skill to him that can get it. My marks and scars I carry with me; to be a witness for me that I have fought His battles. Who will now be my rewarder?" So he passed over, and all the trumpets sounded for him on the other side.

Proceeding, Mr. Stirling said: "It is very proper that we should meet together year after year on the 11th of November to celebrate the coming of peace. We cannot do so, nor would it be right for us to do so, without remembering to pay tribute to those who went from us and did not return."

"In some ways it might be considered presumptuous that one who did not go should take a prominent part in such a service, but yet when I was asked to do so I considered it a privilege. The words I have just read are from Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress'; they express beautifully the thought that occurs to us when we gaze on these cenotaphs all over the country. These men who went from among us differed in many ways, one from another, but in one particular they were identical; they went to insure, so far as in them lay, that right should triumph. To accomplish that end they spent themselves to the uttermost, and left us a message and example. They suffered indescribably so that today you can carry on."

ANGLICAN BAZAAR REACHES OBJECTIVE

Event Proves Very Successful In Every Respect

Although the attendance at the Anglican Bazaar, held in the Morrison Hall on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening, was not so large as had been expected, its patrons must have been very liberal spenders, as the objective of the event, to provide new heating apparatus for St. Michael and All Angels, was fully achieved. The latest figures indicate that 115 of the 328 persons aboard the "Vestris" lost their lives.

United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle and his assistants lost no time in launching an enquiry, even though there is some question of the jurisdiction in any criminal proceedings that may be instituted. Intimation came from the British Embassy that investigation also would be made by the British Board of Trade. There is a possibility, too, that Congressional investigation will follow. The Federal enquiry is seeking to determine, on the basis of the following charges made by the survivors:

1. Why wasn't an S.O.S. sent out sooner from the "Vestris"?
2. Did the company fail, as alleged by survivors, to provide adequate safety equipment?
3. Was Captain William Carey, commander, who went down with his ill-fated ship, guilty of inefficiency and vacillation in the face of danger?
4. Were the officers of the "Vestris" guilty of callous indifference?
5. Did the crew, as a whole, look out for themselves at the expense of the passengers?
6. Were the life boats in a bad condition?
7. Did the "Vestris" leave its port in New York listing somewhat, and not in the best of condition?

The charges against the surviving passengers, which are to be investigated by the federal authorities, include: "Failure to ask aid in time," "Delay in abandoning the sinking ship," "Failure to warn the passengers and crew of the danger," "Defective life boat equipment."

Officials of Sanderson & Co., local representatives of the Lampport & Holt Line, the operators of the "Vestris," were reluctant to make any comment upon the bitter charges made by survivors. "What about these charges?" reporters asked David Cook, Vice-President. "The officers will answer them at the enquiry," he replied.

DELEGATION TO PRAIRIES COMPLETED

B.C.F.G.A. Appoints Mr. E. M. Carruthers As Representative

At a meeting of the Executive of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association, held here last Saturday, Mr. E. M. Carruthers, of Kelowna, President of the Growers' & Shippers' Federation, was selected as representative of the Association on the delegation to tour the prairie provinces in the interests of better protection for the horticultural industry against American competition.

Mr. E. J. Chambers, President of the Associated Growers of B.C., has been chosen as representative of the Growers' & Shippers' Federation, and the other members of the delegation will consist of Capt. F. Mutrie, Vernon; Mr. T. Abriel, Nakusp; President of the B.C.F.G.A., and Mr. S. W. Dufco, of Penticton.

According to arrangements outlined at the meeting, Messrs. Abriel, Mutrie and Chambers will proceed to Toronto and Ottawa to confer with Eastern horticulturists and with the Dominion cabinet, and on their return westwards Messrs. Carruthers and Dufco will meet them at Winnipeg, the delegation thereafter visiting the principal points in the prairie provinces and interviewing the various organizations of farmers, whose support it is desired to enlist on behalf of the movement for betterment of conditions in the fruit and vegetable industry.

ENQUIRIES PENDING LOSS OF VESTRIS

British Board Of Trade And United States Launch Vigorous Enquiry As To Cause Of Disaster

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Board of Trade, that section of the British Government which deals with marine shipping, will make a vigorous enquiry into the loss of the "Vestris," it was officially announced this afternoon. The registry of the "Vestris" was British, and the statement followed: "Searching enquiry must be made both into the loss of the 'Vestris' and loss of life. Date and place of enquiry will be announced later."

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—While the last of the survivors of the "Vestris" disaster were being brought into New York today, rigid investigation of the charges of "criminal negligence," and "murder" was begun by the Federal Government with the view of fixing the responsibility for the sinking on Monday of the liner in the storm-tossed water 250 miles off the Virginia coast.

The latest figures indicate that 115 of the 328 persons aboard the "Vestris" lost their lives. United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle and his assistants lost no time in launching an enquiry, even though there is some question of the jurisdiction in any criminal proceedings that may be instituted. Intimation came from the British Embassy that investigation also would be made by the British Board of Trade. There is a possibility, too, that Congressional investigation will follow. The Federal enquiry is seeking to determine, on the basis of the following charges made by the survivors:

1. Why wasn't an S.O.S. sent out sooner from the "Vestris"?
2. Did the company fail, as alleged by survivors, to provide adequate safety equipment?
3. Was Captain William Carey, commander, who went down with his ill-fated ship, guilty of inefficiency and vacillation in the face of danger?
4. Were the officers of the "Vestris" guilty of callous indifference?
5. Did the crew, as a whole, look out for themselves at the expense of the passengers?
6. Were the life boats in a bad condition?
7. Did the "Vestris" leave its port in New York listing somewhat, and not in the best of condition?

The charges against the surviving passengers, which are to be investigated by the federal authorities, include: "Failure to ask aid in time," "Delay in abandoning the sinking ship," "Failure to warn the passengers and crew of the danger," "Defective life boat equipment."

SIX U.S. SOLDIERS KILLED IN ARMY PLANE CRASH

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Nov. 15.—Six enlisted men were killed and another was injured in a parachute jump when a U.S. Army transport plane crashed from an altitude of four thousand feet near here yesterday. Lieut. Harvey T. Dyer, pilot of the plane, saved his life by jumping.

An ideal husband is usually a reconditioned job his old friends wouldn't recognize.

PROMOTION OF COMMUNITY WELFARE

Rotary Club Holds Special Get-Together Luncheon During Home Shopping Week

"Home Shopping Week" was observed in a special and fitting manner by the Kelowna Rotary Club with a special luncheon at which members had as their guests many fruit and vegetable growers and dairymen from the district tributary to the city. The keynote was expressed by the President, Mr. H. F. Rees, who reminded his hearers of the gradual development of man, so that today no man or group of men could live to themselves, but the greatest individual good came from community effort. He welcomed the guests and assured them that in the raising of the morale of the community through service to the other fellow the Rotary Club would be glad to assist and foster anything that would tend to make for the betterment of the district, inviting them to approach any member with any ideas they might have, that they might all work them out together.

Mr. Donald Macrae, rendered the solo "We're all friends together." Mr. G. S. McKenzie, Vice-President of the Rotary Club, called upon to address the gathering, said that, while the club had had a number of illustrious guests, in his opinion the gathering today was the most important the club had ever had, as it got nearer the heart of what Rotary really meant and was aiming at, the development of a community spirit, the development of the personality of a community and its value as an asset as compared with mere material wealth, and made a plea for more understanding and less suspicion, more confidence and more sympathetic appreciation of what each one was trying to do for the community. He paid tribute, as an example, to the efforts of Mr. J. Spall, who as President of the B.C. Tomato Growers Association, had done a great deal for the community, which, outside of those associated with him, was not realized.

Mr. Leslie Dilworth, who was called upon to speak as one of the guests, thanked the Rotary Club for the spirit which prompted such a meeting, and urged the necessity of such a spirit in the whole community. He took it that his problem was to present instances where the city-man might co-operate with his neighbour on the land, and declared that in his opinion Kelowna was unique in having businessmen who did co-operate in the truest sense with the farmer.

In conversation with Westbank friends, Mr. Dilworth had learned that they felt handicapped through not having a later ferry on Saturday nights, and some special recognition for those who lived within a short distance of the ferry and had to use it for shopping and getting banking and other business done.

The question of steps towards formation of consolidated schools had been discussed amongst farmers. Though they produced the original wealth and had large investments, their children did not have equal advantages with those who had no investment, no responsibility, while imported goods in the wheel of industry, could not reasonably be considered as worthy of greater privileges.

In days when rapid progress was being made in distribution of electric power, it would seem that any action toward the solution of lighting and power problems for the farmer would be welcomed. He was, perhaps, somewhat of an optimist, but when he had his house built, fifteen years ago, it was wired for electric light and still not hooked up.

Dr. W. J. Knox, speaking from the Rotarian point of view, said that on looking around the room he was assured that each rancher present was a Rotarian in spirit; he knew them all, and of their acts done with the "service" spirit. He stated that if Rotary was anything, it was practical, and felt that through quiet, sensible work on the points brought up by Mr. Dilworth, as well as others, much could be attained.

Mr. F. Baldock, who has recently become a rancher, thanked the club for the occasion. He appreciated the importance and necessity of a city in his life. He looked forward with pleasure to the sight of the strings of coloured lights across the streets on Saturday night. In fact, he thought the City Council should be thanked for these little things that they are doing to help the country worker make more out of his visit to town.

One speaker said: "When men from the country are at the head of some organization, the city men should have confidence in it, and back it up 100 per cent." Another said: "When the men of a town start, after careful consideration, some enterprise, it should be the duty of the farmer to support it 100 per cent."

President Rees said: "We must realize that it is a fact, and that nothing can be more true than this, 'If we help others, we help ourselves.'"

SHIFTING OF CARGO MAY HAVE SUNK VESTRIS

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—David Cook, Vice-President of Sanderson & Son, Inc., agents for the Lampport & Holt Steamship Company, stated yesterday that he believed that the shifting of crated automobiles and other cargo had started the list which caused the steamer Vestris to sink off the Virginia Capes.

MEMORABLE DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED

Large Attendance At Armistice Memorial Service—Marked Increase In Sales Of Poppies

Local observance of the tenth anniversary of the Armistice began with the sale of poppies on the streets on Saturday by the ladies of the Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, the proceeds to be used for the relief of veterans, whether members of that organization or not, in necessitous circumstances. It is gratifying to announce that a total of $313.00 was realized in this way, being $43.00 more than was obtained last year. This shows that the people of Kelowna do not forget.

The two minutes silence was generally observed at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning, and appropriate references to the notable anniversary were made from the various pulpits.

Memorial Service

Extra seating accommodation was necessary to provide for the large congregation that assembled at St. Michael and All Angels at 3 p.m. for the annual memorial service, which was conducted by the Rector, Rev. C. E. Davis, ex-Chaplain to the Forces, with the assistance of Ven. Archdeacon Greene and Rev. A. K. McMinn, minister of the First United Church.

The order of service was as follows: Processional Hymn No. 636: "The Son of God goes forth to war." Responsive Prayers, led by Rev. C. E. Davis.

Psalm 23: "The Lord is My Shepherd." Psalm 90: "Lord, Thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another."

First Lesson: Micah, Chap. 4. Read by Rev. A. K. McMinn.

Hymn No. 679: "O Love that wilt not let me go." Second Lesson: St. John, Chap. 15. Read by Capt. Claude Taylor.

Nunc Dimittis. Apostles' Creed. Prayers, led by Rev. C. E. Davis.

Hymn No. 279: "God of the living, in whose eyes." Sermon, by Rev. C. E. Davis.

Offertory Hymn No. 383: "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Benediction, by Ven. Archdeacon Greene.

Funeral March. "The Last Post." Sounded on the trumpet by Mr. W. Crookes.

National Anthem. Recessional Hymn No. 598: "Psalms of Glory, raiment bright."

The text of Mr. Davis' address was taken from I Corinthians, Chap. 6, Vs. 20: "For we are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." In his remarks the preacher strongly denounced selfishness and self-indulgence and declared that the lessons of self-sacrifice shown by the men who laid down their lives for liberty during the Great War seemed to have been forgotten by the present generation in its mad pursuit of pleasure.

The collection at the service amounted to $73.80, which is practically the same as at the service last year.

Wreaths At Cenotaph

There was no parade of veterans to the cenotaph in the City Park this year, but a number of them gathered there for a few minutes and stood in silence, and then, after depositing a number of wreaths round its base. The organizations or others that contributed wreaths were as follows: Canadian Legion; Anglican Church; First United Church; Kelowna Volunteer Fire Brigade; Jack McMillan Chapter, I.O.D.E.; A.F. & A.M.; Orchard City Lodge, No. 59, I.O.O.F.; Order of Rebekahs; Knights of Columbus; Sons of England; Loyal Order of Logies; Rotary Club of Kelowna; Gryo Club of Kelowna; Kelowna Club; Bank of Montreal; Royal Bank of Canada; Okanagan Loan & Investment Trust Co.; Capt. and Mrs. Claude Taylor and two anonymous sprays of chrysanthemums and evergreens and poppies.

Armistice Dance

The annual observance of the anniversary concluded on Monday evening with a very enjoyable dance in the I.O.O.F. Temple, at which about 175 people were present, who continued dancing until the early hours of the morning to the melodious strains of the Kelownians Orchestra.

Legion Returns Thanks

The Committee and members of the Kelowna Branch of the Canadian Legion desire to express their most grateful thanks to the citizens of Kelowna and district for the generous response they made to the Poppy Day appeal, the ladies who so kindly assisted with the sale of poppies, and to all the different organizations and firms who purchased poppy wreaths.

PROHIBITION DEFEATED IN NEW ZEALAND

WELLINGTON, N.Z., Nov. 15.—Prohibition was defeated by a majority of around 100,000 votes and the government forces under J. G. Coates, Prime Minister, suffered a severe setback in yesterday's election. Prohibition was on ballot in the form of a referendum as to whether it should be continued or whether the licensing system should be adopted. The vote was overwhelming against the continuance of prohibition.

CONFERENCE OF WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

Twenty-Two Local Bodies Represented By Delegates To Convention At Salmon Arm

The conference of the Women's Institutes of the Okanagan and North Thompson District (renamed Okanagan and Salmon Arm), which was held at Salmon Arm on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week after a lapse of five years, was a source of satisfaction to many of the members throughout the district.

The Institute, with its motto "For Home and Country," is the service club of most of the rural communities of British Columbia, there being in this district alone twenty-nine societies, twenty-two of which were represented at the conference by one or more delegates.

Not least among the interesting items on the programme were the reports on work accomplished during the past year in the various centres. This work runs the gamut from the assistance of neighbours in distress and the organization of baby clinics to maintenance of public libraries, furnishing of hospital wards and building of community halls.

The Superintendent of Institutes, Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, was in attendance as well as Mrs. H. McGregor, of Penticton, member of the Board of Directors of the Provincial Institutes, the latter being in the chair.

The Hon. R. W. Bruhn, of Salmon Arm, gave an interesting address on the different ways in which the Institutes have been and may be of assistance in the administration of good government, this being decidedly pertinent, as the Institutes are organized under the Department of Agriculture.

For the first time in this district the value of home industries was emphasized and demonstrations were going on between sessions during the whole of the convention in the making of hooked and braided rugs, felt flowers for various uses and crystallized fruits; in addition were displays of soft toys, leather flowers and hand bags.

Mrs. P. W. Pixon was showing samples, new and old, of hand-made gloves in various styles and gave a talk on the history of gloving in British Columbia and the organization of classes under the Technical Branch of the Department of Education.

Mrs. Geo. Murray, of Vancouver, who was demonstrating rug-making, showed some beautiful samples of the rug-maker's art, most notable among them being the new "Chinook" rugs made over copyrighted patterns in which the designer has sought to perpetuate some of the artistry of the old B. C. Indian blankets.

The Institutes of Salmon Arm and nearby districts proved to be excellent hostesses, and the delegates took home with them memories not only of crowded business sessions but of delightful teas, drives and a wonderful banquet which was spread on Tuesday night in the Institute Hall, built entirely by the efforts of the Salmon Arm Institute and in which the conference was held.

LIFEBOAT CREW PERISH IN ENGLISH CHANNEL

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Press Association, today, published an account of the drowning of all the seventeen members of the crew of a lifeboat sent out by the Rye Station, Sussex, in a tempestuous sea at Jury's Gap, when the boat overturned while attempting to assist a small steamer in distress.

An eye witness, who watched the lifeboat depart, was quoted as saying that the tragedy took place within sight of relatives when the crew was returning to the harbour after the crew of the wrecked steamer, Alice, had been rescued by the German steamship Smyrna.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT ABBOTSFORD

ABBOTSFORD, Nov. 15.—Loss estimated at $40,000, was caused by a fire that threatened to engulf this town early this morning. The flames were confined within one block but four buildings were destroyed, the Royal Bank building, bakery, hardware and shoe store. The heaviest loss was caused by the destruction of the stock in Knoll's hardware store, estimated at $15,000 to $20,000. The bank building was valued at about $4,000.

VICTORIA STATE GOVERNMENT DEFEATED

MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 15.—The State Government of Victoria was defeated yesterday by a vote of 31 to 3 on motion of censure in connection with the redistribution of state constituencies.

A lantern swinging from a window in Alaska doesn't mean that some poor Eskimo mother is pining for her wayward son, who has taken advantage of the length of the northern nights and has stayed out six months. There are so few radio sets in the far north, according to word received by KGO from Mabel Le Roy, public health nurse at Unalakleet, that those owning sets signal neighbours with lanterns when reception is good.

BOY SCOUT COLUMN

1st Kelowna Troop

Troop First! Self Last!
Edited by "Pioneer"

13th November, 1928.
Orders for week ending 22nd November, 1928:

Duties: Orderly Patrol for week, Wolves; next for duty, Owls.
Rallies: The Troop will rally at the Scout Hall on Monday, the 19th instant, and the regular basketball practice will be held on the Friday previous, commencing at 4 p.m. The attendance at these basketball practices has not been very good, particularly in the afternoons, and unless it improves we shall give up the time allotted to us for that purpose. Next Friday, each Division will be asked to elect a Captain and a Vice-Captain, whose responsibility will be to try and have enough present in each Division to make two full teams. If everyone attended there would be too many.

The Girl Guides were first in the field at Kelowna, with the Christmas Toy Repair Shop and in such a case Headquarters ask us, instead of starting one ourselves, to first offer our cooperation to the Guides. This we have done and they have said they will appreciate our assistance very much. We have also said that we shall turn in one repaired or new toy from every Scout in the Troop. By a new toy we mean one that the Scout will make himself, and little toy cradles or toy garages will be particularly appreciated. We would ask any of our friends who have any old toys around the house capable of repair, which they do not want to turn them in to us, so that each of our Scouts can have a toy to repair. We shall be pleased to call for them if word is given to any of us. To the Patrol first turning in a complete set of repaired or new toys 80 points will be given, and so on down to the last Patrol, which will receive 10. A further 10 points will also be given for each extra toy over one for each Scout in the Patrol. Then, when it comes to delivering the parcels at Christmas, we should be able to give some useful help. The knowledge that we have contributed in some degree to the happiness of others will do much towards the making of our own "Merry" Christmas.

The annual census returns which we have sent in to Headquarters show that we have a total strength of 61, consisting of 4 recruits, 35 Tenderfoots, 18 Second-Class Scouts, 2 Acting Assistant Scoutmasters, 1 Assistant Scoutmaster and 1 Scoutmaster. Apart from our ASMs, we have no First-Class Scouts at the moment nor any King's Scouts, and only 31 Proficiency Badges are held by 11 Scouts. We lost 5 Scouts in September who between them held 11 Proficiency Badges and one First Class Badge. We think our census returns should be made up as at the end of June each year, because, for example in our own case, several of the Badges lost by us as above mentioned were won between the period of last year's and this year's census returns. It follows, then, that neither we nor the Movement get any credit anywhere for them.

The Lynx beat the Cougars in their Patrol match last Friday, 10 to 2.

GIRL GUIDE NOTES

Orderly Patrol for next week: Daffodil Patrol.

The Patrols playing basketball next week will be the Nightingale and Daffodil Patrols. Please come prepared.

We are commencing our "toy" sale next week. Will Guides not forget to bring any odd bit of material they can find for dressing dolls, etc? Tell your friends about it and maybe we can get some more toys.

On our hike last Monday we went up to see Blair's fox farm. We are sorry more Guides could not have been with us as we had a wonderful time.

We are very sorry to lose our captain, Mrs. Foster, but she was lucky to have a good-bye visit from her considering that she is very busy preparing for her journey.

His mother told him he was so stupid he would never get a job, but he fooled her—in the last month he has had six!

"How late did you sit in that poker game?"
"Till about $12.30."

IN MEMORY OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE'S ONE MILLION DEAD

General Sir Nevil Macready, K.C.B. (inset), unveiled the above tablet to the 1,000,000 dead of the British Empire, in the Church of Notre Dame, at St. Omer, Pas de Calais, France. The inscription on the tablet reads: "To The Glory Of God And To The Memory Of One Million Dead Who Fell In The Great War 1914-1918 And Of Whom The Greater Part Rest In France" and it is repeated below in French. A similar tablet has been placed in Westminster Abbey.

THE PRAIRIE FRUIT MARKET BULLETIN

Current Prices And Market Conditions
(From the weekly Bulletin issued by J. A. Grant, Fruit Markets Commissioner, Calgary.)

Calgary, Nov. 10, 1928.

The Week In Calgary

Continued fine weather prevails at all prairie points. Collections are very slow. The effect of the new money coming in for wheat will not be felt for some time yet, as much of the wheat is stored in the elevators and not sold.

There is a good movement of winter apples to country points, but city movement is rather slow. We think this a benefit, as too much haste in placing them usually leaves the spring market bare, with importations to make up deficit. This should not occur next spring, as there are sufficient good keeping apples in B.C. to meet all demands.

The potato market will firm up from now on, and while there is no scarcity, we do not expect to see any carry-over surplus at pit opening time. We again urge growers to market only their high-grade stuff. Read the Vancouver report re potatoes. British Columbia has marketed a heavy crop of tomatoes, onions and apples this year, and prices, although low, are not unsatisfactory. Much of the credit for this belongs to the orderly marketing system now being enforced by the Committee of Direction.

This issue of the Bulletin will finish the publication for this year.

1ST RUTLAND TROOP

"Do A Good Turn Daily"

Orders for the week ending Nov. 24th:

The Troop will parade in the School basement on Friday, at 7.30 p.m. Uniform optional.

Duty Patrol: Beavers.

There was a slight improvement in the attendance at the meeting on Friday last in the school basement. Eleven Scouts were on parade, and the Assistant Scoutmaster was also present for the first time this season, having been too busy at the packing house to attend previously.

The programme consisted of P.T., games, and first aid work in corners, followed by one-act plays by patrols, introducing first aid work. The Beavers were adjudged winners in this. A "stunt" period followed, in which a number of individual tricks and stunts were performed. A joke and story telling contest came next. Scout W. McIvor being accorded the first place.

There was a fairly good turn-out of Scouts and Cubs at the Memorial Service on Sunday, November 11th, an account of which will no doubt be found in the Rutland notes. The showing of uniform was poor, and left-much to be desired.

Wolf Cubs

The Cubs held an enjoyable hike on Monday, Thanksgiving Day. The two Sixes travelled by different routes to the destination, the bridge over Mission Creek. Each Sixer was given a map of the route for his six with instructions to look out for the other six and try to ambush them. The Reds got to the end of the trail first and succeeded partially in trapping the other six. After lunch a few games were played in the vicinity of the "Intake." Each Cub then took a trip over the "swinging bridge" and back again. The return trip was made across the Belgo bench, the Pack arriving home in time to watch the final stages of the school football game.

Business during the past week has been quiet.

On account of the large quantity of bulk apples received, the business in boxed apples has been relegated to the background. The bulk apples, in question are mostly Jonathans, of good size, colour and condition. They are hard to firm-ripe and generally speaking, being carefully packed in locally made crates. Owing to the lack of packing house equipment, the pack is comparatively slack and the apples are being sold at a conspicuously lower price than B.C. packed "Household" grade. It would appear to be good business to pack these apples in B.C. as "Household" grade and so avoid costly competition. The locally packed product, whilst actually very little cheaper to the consumer, is very detrimental to the prices of B.C. boxed apples, and recovery being difficult, a few cars of bulk apples have a serious effect on a very large part of the B.C. boxed shipments.

During the week we have received three cars of California grapes. These are of good quality and selling freely at 10 cents to 12 1/2 cents per lb. A considerable number of Ontario basket grapes and pears are still on the floors of the wholesale houses. These are moving altogether too slowly and deterioration is becoming evident, which will result in loss to the jobbers.

On the 6th inst. we received the first car of California field tomatoes. These are of good quality, but very green, and will take a lot of repacking.

A few cars of potatoes are being loaded at country points adjacent to the city; these are destined for points in Saskatchewan and Northern and North Eastern Alberta towns; in some instances to localities which have previously shipped a considerable quantity of potatoes. Production varies greatly and there are only a few districts which produce a regular crop. Buyers are now paying growers $13.00 to $15.00 per ton, f.o.b., sacks furnished by

1928 Season's Difficulties

The season just ending has been very uneven in the returns obtained for perishable produce shipped from B.C. to the prairie provinces. Some commodities have obtained greatly increased distribution and good prices, while others have fallen below the average. Prairie consumption has increased greatly and the causes for a lower than average distribution and price must be accounted for in unfavourable weather conditions at shipping and receiving points, which, through low prices quoted there, made without consideration to cost of production and shipped in ahead of the Canadian grown supply, lessened the consumption of Canadian grown produce, as the public taste was satiated before it came on the market. The principal sufferers through this competition are strawberry, soft or stone fruit and potato growers.

Canadian farmers have raised the question, "Shall Canada be penalized by seasonal over-production of perishables grown in the U.S. of a kind that are over produced at home, just because they are a few weeks earlier on the market?" We note that "Farm Relief" is a burning question south of the line. Over-production there has made it a buyers' market and ruinous prices to farmers prevail. Higher tariff is advocated as a partial corrective, and we agree that they are within their rights in taking care of their farmers. "What is good for the goose should be good for the gander."

Medicine Hat
Weather conditions still continue ideal and the threshing is pretty well completed and there is a very small percentage of the grain marketed owing to congestion at the elevators. Business is good but collections are very slow.

Saskatoon

Weather still keeps fine, but trade is rather slow.
This time last year there was still a lot of country cars to be distributed, but this year they have all been delivered or are now rolling. There has not been much late winter business done yet in the city as they are working on McIntosh and Jonathans at reduced prices, and cleaning up Wealthies and other late fall varieties.

The trade are busy with Thanksgiving business this week, which is creating a demand for cranberries, celery, grapes and other seasonal goods. Collections are poor as wheat is grading low and selling at low prices.

Although there have been some inquiries for potatoes, there have not been many cars bought outside of this province, as local supplies are taking care of the city demand and a few cars have been shipped out to country points.

Regina

The weather continues dry and cool. Business is fair.

As this is the last issue of the Bulletin for this season, it is a pleasure to be able to state that, speaking generally, there has been a very marked improvement this season in the quality, pack and condition of B.C. products coming on this market as compared with previous years.

We note also that more attention has been given to attractive packages. The more often a good label is used the more valuable a business asset it becomes. Shrewd buyers who first spotted your pack because the label caught and held their attention and looked like quality soon learn that it means quality; that you back up your label with high-grade packs. This applies to every commodity, from strawberries to potatoes.

OKANAGAN MISSION

Congratulations to Mr. Hesselgrave (Senior) on obtaining a fine buck last week. Also to Mr. B. E. Crichton, who brought home a 14-lb. fish.

Miss K. M. Franklin, who has been visiting her sister, leaves for China on Friday. While she was here Miss E. K. Franklin entertained several friends at tea on Wednesday and Thursday last. Mrs. G. Hall and Mrs. Haverfield kindly dispensing tea on the successive days.

There will be Sunday School next Sunday at 10 a.m.

A very unpleasant incident has occurred at the Mission which is not the first of the kind to happen, though all now private houses, at least when occupied, have been respected. About thirty sealers of jam have been stolen from Mrs. W. D. Walker's root cellar quite near the house, and the individual who was not above pilfering jam has been at the pains to steal from the back row and replace the sealers in front so that the theft might not be noticed. This looks as if the jam was taken pot by pot on successive occasions.

Mrs. W. C. Renfrew left on Friday for Toronto, where she will spend the winter, the rest of the family following later.

Mr. and Mrs. Innocent are now set-led in Mrs. Francis' house, where they will spend the winter.

The Archdeacon held the Armistice Day Service at St. Andrew's on Sunday morning, which was well attended. The two minutes' silence was marked by the ringing of the church bell, and the names of those who went from the Mission and never returned were read aloud from the chancel. Mrs. Atchinson kindly came from Kelowna to play the organ for us.

The Guides had a successful meeting at the School on Monday last. Mrs. Baldwin presented Second Class badges to all who had qualified, and Service Stars were distributed to the Company. Mrs. J. N. Thompson, of Kelowna, was present unofficially as a guest and tea was served afterwards in the School dining room.

Mrs. Coode, of Summerland, who has been visiting Mr. A. W. Jones, has now returned home.

Don't forget that next Wednesday, November 21st, is the Mission's day for attending the Hospital sewing bee at the Nurses' Home. The Ladies' Aid ask for as many helpers as possible this time, as there is a great deal of work on hand.

Now that the absent-minded professor is in the hospital we won't hear from him for awhile. The other night he put the cat to bed and kicked himself downstairs.

Winnipeg
Business has been fair on this market for the past week, with jobbers complaining that they are not making any money on domestic fruit. McIntosh Reds are the heaviest stocks carried. Since the 2nd three cars of Ontario barrels, Norfolk Brand, and two cars of Nova Scotia barrel apples have been received, all fair stock and selling readily. Low grade box apples are moving a little better, but bulk apples are still filling most of the demand for apples.

Local potatoes are in good supply, with a few cars going to Saskatchewan; the price is still low. Manitoba onions are still taking care of most of the onion business; stocks of B.C. onions held here are light. Stocks of apples are starting to pile up in jobbers' warehouses and no imported apples have been received since last report. Two cars of California field tomatoes arrived this week and are practically all the tomatoes on the market, with the exception of small L.C.L. shipments of hothouse tomatoes from B.C.

The weather is still mild with no snow and good country roads, which should be of assistance to the fruit business.

SIMPLE MEANS OF TELLING DIRECTION

Methods Of Avoiding Loss Of Way In The Woods

When travelling in unfamiliar country, it very often becomes necessary to determine direction. Most people are able in a general sort of way to do so in the daytime by means of the sun, if it is shining, or at night (speaking more particularly of the northern hemisphere) by means of the North Star. Some people seem to possess the faculty of telling direction by means of the sun with a remarkable degree of accuracy. To those who have difficulty in this regard, the well-known method of making use of the watch in conjunction with the sun may be employed. This is effected by holding the watch level and pointing the hour hand at the sun and accepting the line midway between it and the figure 12 on the dial as the due south direction. This will not give direction accurately but will be good enough for most practical purposes. The sun appears to go around the earth in a clockwise direction (to those in the northern hemisphere) making the complete circle in twenty-four hours. The hour hand of the watch makes a revolution once in twelve hours, or in other words, moves twice as fast as the sun appears to travel. Assuming that the sun is due

Vancouver

The deal in apples goes on without any features worthy of comment. This condition applies to most lines of produce.

During the week two carlots of Yakima potatoes arrived on the market and it is reported there are several more to follow. These shipments arrived f.o.b. Vancouver at $27.75, all charges paid and passed as Canada "A" Grade. It is to be regretted that it is almost impossible to get a shipment of Ashcroft or other Dry Belt potatoes that will come up to this grade. The usual shipment grades as Canada "B" and these arrive here at practically the same price as the imported product, which, up to the present, has graded Canada "A." A remedy should be applied to this situation as soon as possible; otherwise, provided the Washington market remains at its present low level, the local market will be lost to the B.C. Dry Belt product and the growers will be left with a large surplus on their hands. The U.S. policy of grading high and using the low grades for stock feed might apply profitably to B.C. potatoes in certain seasons.

south when the hour hand of the watch is at 12 noon, the working out of this simple method becomes quite apparent after a little consideration.

For two reasons the method is not absolute. One is that at 12 noon by the watch, except on four days in the year, the sun is not exactly due south but is constantly varying in its position. Another reason is that the sun does not move around the horizon on a level with the hands of the watch but constantly moving up in the morning and down in the afternoon. Thus it is the sun may appear to move farther during an hour near the middle of the day than during the same period of time in the morning or the evening.

At night the position of the Pole Star, or Polaris, is an infallible guide. This star may readily be picked out in the sky by using the two outer stars of the Great Bear constellation or "Big Dipper" as it is often called as pointers. The North Star also forms the end star of the handle of the "Little Bear" constellation of the "Little Dipper," but this cannot always be made out even when the stars are shining on account of the fact that they are of much less magnitude.

When travelling in strange country, through the woods, etc., it often happens that one wishes to know the direction when the sky is overcast with clouds. Some people who are familiar with the woods can read the signs from the evidences of Nature. Thus the southern sides of certain kinds of popular trees are commonly whiter than the northern sides, due to the action of the sun. In certain trees, more moss will grow on the north side than on the south. Some Indians, it is claimed, can tell direction in a grassy country by the way the grass lies due to the prevailing winds.

But these methods, when one is lost on a cloudy day in a strange district or particularly in the woods, are more likely than not to add to one's confusion. How much better would it be in this case, if one were provided with a good magnetic compass and a good map of the district as well, and knew how to use them both?

The Topographical Survey, Department of the Interior, are engaged in the task of publishing such maps. One series, that known as the National Topographic Series, is intended eventually to extend from one end of Canada to the other. They also have collected a great deal of information regarding the true direction of the magnetic needle, since the magnetic needle does not point true north but more or less east or west at different places. The map sheets above referred to and publications embodying the information collected regarding the magnetic needle are available to the public in each case at nominal cost.

A body is present wherever its attractive influence is felt. This law of the material universe holds still more strongly in the spiritual. A person is present where his influence is felt. This presence may be trained to great perfection in what we know as telepathy or clairvoyance. In intercessory prayer we can lay ourselves over against those we pray for, on establishing definite and conscious contact with God. We offer our strength in Christ, or Christ's strength through us, to our fellows. The blessings of presence are attained only by mutual approach. God is everywhere, yet His presence is unknown and without blessing to those who will not respond to His influence. Materially, Jesus was present to Pilate and to Herod; but spiritually they were infinitely absent, for they would not feel His influence.

foreign countries, $3.00 per year.

The COURIER does not necessarily endorse the sentiments of any contributor. Advertisers to ensure acceptance, all manuscripts should be legibly written on one side of the paper only. Typewritten copy is preferred.
Amateur poetry is not solicited.
Letters to the editor will not be accepted for publication over a "nom de plume"; the writer's correct name must be appended.
Contributed matter received after Tuesday night will not be published until the following week.

ADVERTISING RATES
Contract advertisers will please note that their contract calls for delivery of all changes of advertisement to The Courier Office by Monday night. This rule is in the mutual interests of patrons and publisher, to avoid congestion on Wednesday and Thursday and consequently night work, and to facilitate publication of The Courier on Friday. Changes of contract advertisements will be accepted on Tuesday as an accommodation to an advertiser confronted with an emergency. For this no account on Wednesday for the following day's issue.

Transient Contract Advertisements—Rates quoted on application.
Legal and Municipal Advertisements—First insertion, 15 cents per line; each subsequent insertion, 10 cents per line.
Classified Advertisements—Such as For Sale,

"Want Ad." First insertion, 10 cents per line; each additional insertion, without charge of matter, 10 cents per line. Minimum charge per week, 30 cents. Count five words to line.
Each initial and group of not more than five words counts as a word.
If so desired, advertisers may have replies addressed to a box number, care of The Courier, and forwarded to their private address, or delivered on call at office. For this service, add 10 cents to cover postage or filing.

NO CIVIC GRANT FOR APPLE FESTIVAL

The opinion of the City Solicitors was to the effect that, owing to the lapse of time since the assessment was made in regard to which Mr. Marshall complained, he would have no right of action. If the Council felt that Mr.
Marshall had any moral claim to a refund, it was pointed out that such could not be made unless a By-Law was submitted to the ratepayers for approval.
In view of the legal opinion, the Council felt that they could do nothing towards making the refund demanded by Mr. Marshall.

The Apple Festival Project
A letter was received from Mr. Ted Buse, who described himself as organizer and originator of the Apple Festival scheme, urging that the Council make a grant of at least $100 in aid of it as a valuable feature of publicity.
He also desired to secure the use of Pender St. or Bernard Avenue to stage an exhibition of Percy Williams, Olympic champion, and his Vancouver running mate, Wally Scott, versus all challengers. "Torchy" Pedden, noted Olympic cyclist, and Jimmy Davies, Vancouver champion, would also be invited.

It was proposed, according to the letter, to stage the world's first championships for fastest boxmaker, fastest apple packer, and for all men over thirty-five (including the Kelowna City Fathers) for the best and most deadly horseshoe tossing. It was also proposed to have games for the basketball championship of the Okanagan and other attractive features.
In connection with the letter, Mayor Sutherland stated that Mr. Buse had interviewed him that afternoon, but the speaker held out no hope of a civic grant, pointing out that the Council placed in the hands of the Board of Trade about $1,000 yearly for publicity purposes, and, with the municipal year drawing to a close and available revenues already earmarked, there was no possibility of increasing that amount.
He understood that Mr. Buse had also interviewed the Executive of the Board, and had been told that nothing could be done to assist his project, as no funds were available.

The members of the Council agreed with His Worship that no further appropriation could be made this year for publicity purposes, and the letter was ordered to be filed.

Sale Of Debentures
A resolution was passed confirming the sale to Mrs. Edith Anderson at par and accrued interest of two debentures of $500 each, issued under Fire Apparatus Loan By-Law No. 487.

Court Of Revision Of Voters' List
By resolution, Aldermen Shier and Rattenbury were appointed to act with the Mayor as a Court of Revision of the Voters' List for the year 1929, to sit in the Council Chamber on Monday, December 10th, at 10 a.m.

A Hospitable Invitation
An invitation to the Mayor and aldermen having been received from the Officer Commanding and members of the Officers' Mess of the 1st B.C.
Mounted Rifles (2nd C.M.R.) for a festive session of dancing and bridge at the Armoury, Vernon, on Thursday afternoon, November 15th, the City Clerk was directed to acknowledge the courtesy with thanks, but none of the Council could say definitely that he would be able to attend.

Expression Of Condolence
Upon the suggestion of Ald. Knowles, it was decided to forward an expression of sympathy in her bereavement to Mrs. W. Crawford, whose late husband had acted as Tourist Agent at the camp in the Park since its institution.
The Council adjourned until Monday,
November 26th.

GLENMORE

Miss Marianne Bateman, of Vancouver, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R.
W. Corner.

Thursday, November 22nd, is the date arranged by the Community Guild for the annual tea and sale of home cooking, etc., to be held at the Schoolhouse. It is hoped that all will make an effort to be present.

On November 6th, before Magistrate E. Weddell, a Glenmore resident was fined five dollars and costs for allowing his horses to run at large in the Municipality. The complaint was laid by the constable.

Municipal Council

The assessment of all the land in the Municipality was the subject of a thorough investigation by the Council at a special meeting held on November 9th. Every parcel was reviewed and where the assessment was not considered to be in line with present day values changes were suggested to the Assessor.

Councillor J. C. Clarke was granted two months leave of absence.

OKANAGAN CENTRE

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Copeland were in Vernon the better part of last week attending the Poultry Show and exhibiting a pen of four silver fox puppies. They were fortunate in capturing five prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nuyens have moved with their little family to Seat-le, and the house in which they lived is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs.
Washuk and family.

Deer appear to be very plentiful in the neighbourhood this season, having been seen close to the public roads many times, no less than six does being in one herd. Mr. Bob Wentworth has been very successful in hunting them, having bagged two fine bucks near the Howerton Orchards, which have been damaged by them considerably this autumn.

The first social tea of the Badminton Club last Saturday afternoon, was well attended and members were trying to get in form after a long tennis season.

Mr. G. W. Parker has been exhibiting samples of a very fine-flavoured, seedless European grape grown on his ranch. The bunches are well over foot in length with the berries set closely in great clusters, while the vine is quite prolific.

Miss Reid spent a few days with Mrs.
Brixton before leaving for Portland.

Miss Isabel Hogg left on Thursday for Portland, Oregon, on a vacation.

Mrs. Olson and daughter have returned to New Westminster after spending a few months in the Centre.

Mr. D. Hiestand and Mr. Jessop returned home last week after spending the summer months on the prairie.

Mr. W. H. Thompson has been having a run of good luck fishing at the centre, bringing in some fine fish of ten to fourteen pounds each.

LOCAL JAPANESE CELEBRATE CORONATION

Ceremony In Honour Of Enthronement Of Emperor

A Japanese celebration in honour of the coronation of Emperor Hirohito, 124th of the Imperial line that reigns over Japan, took place at the I.O.O.F.
Temple on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the same day as the actual event at Kyoto, Japan. The ceremony was staged by members of the Japanese Farmers' Association, about two hundred being present. The only欧peans privileged to witness the proceedings were local people whose names follow: Mr. Grote Stirling, M.F.E.,
and Mrs. Stirling; Mr. J. W. Jones,
M.L.A.; Mayor D. W. Sutherland; Mr.
J. E. Reekie; Mr. T. G. Norris; Mr.
and Mrs. G. H. Dunn, and Chief Constable R. W. Thomas.

The ceremony was congratulatory in that it expressed the satisfaction of the expatriated Japanese with the new ruler of their country. Photographs of the new Emperor and Empress were unveiled on the stage and proceedings were centered around the following:
In the rites, the photographs were again veiled and Kelowna representatives were requested to address the gathering.

Mayor Sutherland, in a short address, said that the Japanese were noted for their untiring industry and good behaviour. Mr. Stirling also complimented them on their good behaviour and he spoke of the friendly relations between Canada and Japan. To further this, Canada had appointed an ambassador to Tokyo and Japan had reciprocated by appointing an ambassador to Ottawa. Mr. T. G. Norris spoke as a representative of the Kelowna Board of Trade. He recalled that during the war a Japanese cruiser had protected the port of Vancouver from bomb-ment by the German fleet, and he praised the bravery of the Japanese soldiers who served overseas, particularly those who were members of Canadian regiments. Other speakers included Mr. J. W. Jones, M.L.A., Chief Constable Thomas and Messrs. Reekie and Dunn.

The Japanese Farmers' Association presented the Kelowna ladies with beautiful trays and the men were presented with handsome vases as a memento of the occasion.

In order to avoid confusion and consequent delay in case of fire, motorists are requested not to park their automobiles on Lawrence Avenue between Water and Pender Streets unless absolutely necessary, as congestion in this block tends to impede the speedy progress of the Fire Brigade in cases of emergency. There is ample parking space available elsewhere and it is felt that, if this request is complied with, there will be little danger of delay
when the fire apparatus is called out.

A boy, aged 14, was arraigned in the City Police Court on Saturday and fined $10 and costs for operating a motor car while still under the age limit. A youth of fifteen may obtain a special permit to operate an automobile, but driver's licences are not issued to those under the age of seventeen.

Mr. G. F. Pearcey, who was successful in capturing many important prizes for his various exhibits of honey at the New Westminster Exhibition this year, has shipped twelve hundred pounds of honey to Liverpool, England, for the purpose of determining if his brand of honey meets the requirements of the Old Country market. Colour is an important factor in the British market, light colour being preferred to amber hues which characterize the different grades of honey sold in Canada. Although a market is provided at the Coast for considerable quantities of Mr. Pearcey's product, other markets could be taken care of, consequently this shipment was made to investigate the possibilities in England.

A Lorie watt was wound at six o'clock on Thursday night which stopped at 8:34.30 on Saturday morning. Mr. A. K. Stuart and Miss Freida Dilworth tied for first prize with guesses of 8.35 respectively, the award of a $27.50 wrist watch going to Mr. Stuart, who won on a toss. Miss Dilworth received a first prize as second prize, and Mr. Donald L. Lane, whose guess was 8.35, won third prize of a handsome brooch.

Kelowna birds led all competitors for the first week in the B.C. Interior Egg Laying contest at Whitehall Ranch, Grand Forks. No outstanding production is indicated by any of the pens, but of course this is to be expected with poultry having been put in new surroundings with new pen mates and changed conditions. However, the White Leghorns of Brown's Fine Feather Farm of Kelowna, had the honour of leading the fray for the first seven days with a total production of twenty four eggs, while the birds of Mr. R. Johnstone, of Kelowna, and those of Mr. K. R. Wood, of Grand Forks, are tied for second place with a total of twenty-one eggs.

While working on a tractor at Silver's Camp, Winfield, on Monday night, Mr. George Weeden suffered severe burns when a nearby barrel of gasoline exploded. Parts of his trousers were torn away and one leg and arm were badly burned. At the time of the accident, he was wearing at the time of the accident, saved him from serious bodily injury. The explosion was caused by fumes from the open barrel of gasoline, which stood twelve or fifteen feet away, becoming ignited by the flame of a lantern in use while working on the tractor. Mr. Weeden was rushed to the Kelowna Hospital, about eighteen miles distant, where it is expected he will remain for the next three weeks.

In celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Armistice, a grand re-union dinner of all ex-service men will be held in Poole's Tea Rooms on Thursday next, November 22nd, at 7:00 p.m. Admission will be by ticket only, the price of which has been set at a modest figure within the reach of all. The dinner is not being arranged in connection with any veterans' organization, but will be open to all who have served the Empire in any military or naval capacity during the Great War or other campaigns, and it is hoped that it will afford an exceptional opportunity for a happy get-together occasion. Arrangements are being made for wide distribution of the tickets for sale, so that no veteran may miss the chance to be present.

OBITUARIES

Mr. William Crawford

Suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, Mr. William Crawford was admitted to the Kelowna Hospital on Wednesday last. The disease made rapid progress and he was unable to rally against it, becoming unconscious towards the end of the week and passing away on Monday morning.

Although about seventy-one years of age, Mr. Crawford enjoyed very good health until a few months ago. He was as active as a man of fifty and looked like an older man, but an illness last spring seemed to impair his vitality to some extent, so that he was unable to make effective resistance to the attack that proved fatal.

A native of Ontario, Mr. Crawford led an adventurous life in his youth. He entered the service of the Hudson's Bay Company and spent a number of years in the northern wilds. Later he embarked upon a mercantile career on his own account and prospered in business at Indian Head until a disastrous fire caused him severe financial loss, following which he came to Kelowna about twenty-one years ago and carried on a stationery and book store for a number of years. Latterly, he handled pianos and was local agent for the Bowles Music House, Ltd., Vancouver. Since the inception of the Tourist Camp, he acted every summer as Tourist Agent, and many who have paid visits to Kelowna each year will miss his courteous and kindly counsel and personality.

Mr. Crawford served in the forces that quelled the North-West Rebellion in 1885, and all his life took a keen interest in military matters. While too old for active service during the Great War, he endeavoured to do his "bit" and was largely instrumental in the formation of the Kelowna Volunteer Reserve, which did valuable work in providing elementary military training for men who afterwards enlisted.

He was an enthusiastic supporter of the Aquatic Association, of which he was a director for many years, and his assistance in connection with the annual Regatta will be much missed.

Mr. Crawford is survived by his wife, who arrived from Indian Head, where she is residing, on Monday in answer to a summons by wire but death had already taken place. Three daughters also survive, Isabel and Elizabeth, in Toronto, and Margaret, in Winnipeg.

The funeral was held from St. Michael and All Angels on Wednesday afternoon, Ven. Archdeacon Greene officiating. Many old friends accompanied the cortege to the Kelowna Cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were Dr. J. W. N. Shepherd, Messrs. D. W. Crowley, H. J. Hewetson, W. R. Trench, H. G. M. Wilson and J. W. Jones, M.L.A.

Mrs. Clara Duggan

As briefly recorded in our last issue, Mrs. Clara Duggan, of Winfield, passed away at the Kelowna Hospital on Tuesday, November 6th. She had been ailing for about three weeks before her death and she underwent a successful operation for appendicitis, but fatal complications ensued later.

Mrs. Duggan, who was fifty-eight years of age, was a native of Wales and came to Canada about twenty years ago with her husband, the late Mr. Thomas Duggan, who predeceased her ten years ago, and family. About four years later they settled in the Rutland district. After Mr. Duggan's death, Mrs. Duggan resided in town for a time and latterly in the Winfield district. She took an active part in church and social work and was widely esteemed, and her death is mourned by a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Duggan is survived by four daughters and six sons, Mrs. F. Harding, Kelowna, Mrs. Frank Price, Nanton, Alberta, Mrs. F. L. Fitzpatrick, Rutland, Ethel, at home, and Thomas, Stanley, Fred, Cecil, Roy and Donald, all resident here. A brother, Mr. J. Evans, lives in the Ellison district.

There was a large attendance at the funeral, which was held to the Kelowna Cemetery from the undertaking parlours of the Kelowna Furniture Company at 2:30 on Thursday, November 8th, and many beautiful tributes of flowers. Rev. J. A. Dow and Rev. A. J. D. Milton officiated. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. E. Reekie, A. G. McGregor, J. Harris, E. Lawley, G. Patterson, sr., and W. R. Powley.

Day—Crafter

St. Michael and All Angels' Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday morning when Miss Catherine Crafter, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Crafter, of Victoria, was united in marriage to Mr. Herbert Roy Day, only son of Mr. H. J. Day, Westside, and the late Mrs. Day, of Harrogate, Yorks, England. The ceremony was performed by Archdeacon Greene.

Major C. Dain acted as best man and the bride was given away by her mother. A number of personal friends witnessed the ceremony, following which Mr. and Mrs. Day left for the west side of the lake, where they will enjoy a short motor trip.

Day—Crafter

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Ootmar announced the marriage of their daughter Alida to Mr. Ed. Coenen on November 16th, 1928, in the Rectory of the Catholic Church, at 10 a.m.

CONSERVING WILD BIRD LIFE ON THIS CONTINENT

International Conference Approves Of Bill To Protect Winter Feeding Grounds

The question of adequate winter feeding grounds for the migratory bird life of the North American continent is one of vital importance to Canada. Migratory birds, and particularly wild waterfowl, which are hatched and raised in Canada, winter largely in the southern United States. The demands of settlement and development have seriously reduced the marshland areas in the southern states and for some years wild life conservationists to the south of the International Boundary have been directing attention to the serious shortage of winter feeding grounds for migratory birds. Recently a measure known as the Norbeck Bill was introduced in the United States Congress to provide for the establishment of bird sanctuaries where migratory birds may rest and feed during migration and where they may winter in safety. When these have been created and with the protection at present provided in both the United States and Canada by the terms of the Migratory Birds Treaty, bird life conservation on this continent, in the opinion of ornithologists, will have been materially advanced.

At the annual conference of International Game and Fish Commissioners, held in Seattle, Washington, from August 27 to 31, one of the important decisions reached was to support in principle the Norbeck Bill. Among the Canadian representatives at this conference were Mr. H. J. Lloyd, Supervisor of Wild Life, Department of the Interior, Ottawa; Mr. J. A. Munro, Chief Federal Migratory Bird Officer for the Western Provinces; and Mr. M. B. Jackson, K.C., Chairman of the Game Conservation Board of British Columbia.

Another project which will have an important bearing on our wild bird life was outlined in a paper presented to

WESTBANK

The Okanagan packing shed finished up on Saturday and Hector and Mrs. Duggan expect to return to Kelowna this week.

Mr. John Basham came up on Saturday to spend the week-end with his parents.

Mr. Groves left for Paynter Lake on Saturday to survey a site for a dam.

The road gang are busy widening the road between Westbank and Harle's Lake, which will be a great improvement.

Church tax exemption was discussed by the Pentecost Municipal Council last week with the result that steps will be taken by By-law to give tax exemption to a number of Pentecost churches.

An increase of fourteen per cent in the population of Salmon Arm since 1921 was the result shown by the taking of the census there recently. Today the population stands at 721 and of these only 19 are Chinese. The figures were given out at the regular meeting of the Salmon Arm City Council on Monday of last week.

the meeting on the work of the United States Biological Survey, in reclaiming marshes near Salt Lake, Utah. Some $300,000 is being spent in improving these marshes where vast numbers of waterfowl, on their migrations to and from Canada, stop to rest and feed. Heretofore very serious losses of waterfowl occurred in these marshes owing to the unhealthy conditions caused by the lowering of the water levels. Those attending the Conference were of the opinion that a reclaimed marsh area at this strategic point would undoubtedly result in a more abundant waterfowl supply in Western Canada.—Natural Resources, Canada.

VIVID TALE OF THE UNDERWORLD

Detectives And Criminals Battle Realistically In "The Drag Net"

Machine guns chatter fiercely as sworn enemies meet in bitter conflict in "The Drag Net," the Paramount picture which will be shown at the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday. George Bancroft is starred in this high voltage melodrama of the fight to the death between police and an organized band of murderous hi-jackers.

Recalling Bancroft's performances in "Underworld" and "The Show Down," it is easy to expect a virile and exciting vehicle of screen entertainment in "The Drag Net." It has all the thrilling qualities which made "Underworld" such a tremendous success and all the tense drama of "The Show Down." In addition, there is a strain of pathos and an unusual thread of romance which easily entice the picture to be classed as one of Bancroft's best.

The picture deals with the underworld theme, but attacks the problem from the standpoint of the men who defend society with their lives. Bancroft takes the part of a detective lieutenant who doesn't know the meaning of fear. He is given orders to clean out a gang of crooks who have been attacking law and order a mockery in a tough district of the city.

Bancroft is superb in his characterization of the detective lieutenant, Evelyn Brent gives a wonderful performance as the girl who admires strength above all other qualities. Miss Brent has appeared in some of the best pictures of the year and her work in each of them has contributed largely to their success. She is an actress of exceptional merit. William Powell, villain of the celluloids, gives one of his usual mastery performances as the leader of the underworld gang, and Fred Kohler is convincing as Steve the Greek, one of the gang leader's lieutenants. Leslie Fenton has a good role in the picture as Shakespeare, the literary detective, and plays it perfectly.

"Skyscraper"

William Boyd's new De Mille star picture, "Skyscraper," comes to the Empress Theatre next week as the showing for Wednesday and Thursday. "Skyscraper" is a novelty that brings to the screen material rich in originality and a fresh idea of romance among the plain, poor folks. The story, which smacks of genuine reality in the everyday life of men, has extracted the utmost from a stupendous situation. Two roughneck riveters, employed in building construction, forget their animosity for a mutual enemy—the boss. Their clowning at work, their simple and elemental romances, make for a story of common American life that is always intensely interesting and always crammed with unusual twists and turns.

Boyd and Alan Hale comprise the team—a pair to be watched for future screen treats. It is an ideal combination and their performances are capital. Sue Carol gives added promise of reaching the top and Alberta Vaughn wins more laurels as one of the silver sheet's rising comedians. In the past, Boyd has co-starred in some excellent pictures. "Skyscraper" is said to be better than previous efforts.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY SACRISTY MODEL

The northeast corner of Westminster Abbey has been given over to builders and work has commenced on the lath-and-plaster model of the proposed new sacristy. The model is being erected so that the Abbey authorities can determine the general effect produced by the new sacristy, which is to house the Abbey treasures, historic robes and furnishings. The above picture shows the workmen engaged in erecting a plaster model of the new building.

RUTLAND

A very pleasant supper and dance was held in the Community Hall on Friday evening in honour of Mr. George Lube and his bride, who were married the previous Monday at Wenatchee, Wash.

The first dance of the winter season was held in the Hall on Thursday evening by the Women's Institute. While the attendance was not very large, a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mrs. C. E. Clay is staying with her son, Mr. C. E. Clay, whose many friends will be glad to hear of his continued progress towards complete recovery after his serious illness.

"Bigger and better than ever" best describes the Thanksgiving Day supper, concert and dance at the Hall on Monday evening, for never in the history of Rutland has such a crowd assembled. It was anticipated by those who had the affair in hand that there would be a good crowd as the tickets sold rapidly, but when Monday evening arrived their expectations were more than realized and they were faced with the task of feeding many more than they expected, and in spite of the abundance of good things provided, for once they were unable to provide for a few who came late. It speaks volumes for the efforts of the ladies who worked so hard that so few were disappointed of a supper but even these paid to attend the concert and dance, which were fully worth the 50c charged.

The committee very much appreciate the splendid way in which the people of Rutland stood behind them in their efforts to provide an even bigger and better supper and entertainment than Rutland has ever produced. All the surrounding districts as well as Kelowna were represented, and although every chair and form from the United Church near by were used, there were not enough seats to accommodate the crowd. The guests were waited upon by a bevy of young ladies who were kept on the top for nearly two hours, while the elder ladies were equally busy in getting the plates ready. A tribute must be paid to their self-sacrificing labours, as they also suffered from the shortage of food.

The concert which followed the supper was quite up to the standard of other years, although the genial presence of Messrs. Geo. McKenzie and Donald McDougall were missed from the programme. Their places, however, were well filled by new blood and the large audience, which completely filled the hall, was treated to an entertainment which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Harold Glenn appropriately set the ball rolling with a Thanksgiving song "Thanks be to God," and for an encore sang "There is no death," her rich voice delighting everybody. Miss F. Olsen, who teaches Division III at the School, next delighted her hearers with the somewhat difficult but charming piano solo "Polichinelle" by Rachmaninoff, and she had to respond to a loudly demanded encore. The popular Rector of Kelowna, the Rev. C. E. Davis, made his first and it is hoped not his last appearance on a Rutland platform by singing a couple of humorous songs, accompanying himself at the piano. Mr. Davis' songs took the audience by storm and provided much merriment. Mrs. E. Oswell's sweet voice was next heard in a vocal solo "Coming Home," after which Mr. E. O. MacGinnis convulsed the crowd with a humorous sketch. "Mac" is always a favourite with Rutlanders and others, and he kept up his reputation on Monday. In response to a special request, Mr. MacGinnis gave several sketches which delighted everybody. Mrs. J. Trenwith was another welcome artiste and in her rich soprano voice she rendered "Calm as the night," after which she had to respond to a recall. Mr. G. Winter is always a favourite with his songs with banjo accompaniment and his songs "Presence of Mind" and the old time favourite of forty years ago, "They called me back again," evoked much merriment. Nor must we forget to mention Mr. Beale's contribution to the programme with his song "Lucky Jim," which also created roars of laughter.

At the conclusion of the programme, which was piloted through by Mr.

NEWSPAPERS MAKE HEAVY DEMANDS UPON FORESTS

Sunday Editions Of Dailies Large Consumers Of Newsprint

According to recent figures, Canada exports twenty-five per cent of the pulpwood cut, forty-five per cent of the wood pulp manufactured and eighty-eight per cent of the newsprint manufactured. It takes one and one-half cords of wood to make one ton of newsprint, and about one hundred horse power. Consumption of pulpwood per annum in Canada amounts to about 22,000,000 cords, and it is estimated that Canada's resources in this regard amount to about 600,000,000 cords.

The approximate cost of erecting a newsprint mill with one hundred tons daily capacity, together with sufficient timber reserves, amount to $10,000,000. Thus capital required to produce each ton of newsprint daily is approximately $100,000. A large newspaper requires over one hundred acres of spruce and balsam forest (1,000 cords of pulpwood) to make the newsprint for the Sunday edition of its paper. Canada produced 1,889,000 tons of newsprint in 1927, against 1,687,000 tons for the United States. It is estimated that the 1927 production was 2,400,000 tons compared with 1,500,000 tons in the United States. World's production in 1928 should approximate 6,000,000 tons, of which Canada will evidently supply approximately one-third.

PROVINCIAL ITEMS

A new sport will make its appearance in Rutland this winter with the organization of the Vernon Ski Club. Enthusiasts are hard at work arranging a programme for the winter, and it is expected that a meeting of all interested will be held in the near future.

Tax payments made this year at Pentecost prior to the application of the 15 per cent penalty after November 6th, have been the greatest in the history of the municipality. The percentage of current taxes collected before the application of the penalty was approximately 90 per cent as compared with 87.03 per cent for 1927, which had the best previous record.

Two basketball teams from Merritt visited Kamloops on Wednesday of last week with a large following of fans in cars. Probably forty Merritt residents were rooting for the teams. Merritt girls played Kamloops girls and were beaten 42-4. The lack of practice of the Merritt girls and the fact that they were playing on a hardwood floor handicapped the visitors. The Merritt boys also lost, the score being 34-14.

A coal by-product plant to cost, for the first unit alone, between $125,000 and $175,000 and employ some hundreds of men as the industry expands is in prospect for Merritt. English capital is behind the enterprise. The company, of which Mr. H. N. Freeman, until recently acting-secretary of the B. C. Chamber of Mines, has been appointed managing director, is fully financed and no stock is available for sale to the public. The plans call for the installation of by-products plants in each Canadian province, with the first British Columbia plant in Merritt. In brief, the aim of the company is to turn into profit the most valuable of the 250 by-products of coal now being discarded in B.C. coal mining such as gas, oils, tars, ammonia and other rich units. There will be no lump coal mining but it is planned to make pulverized and smokeless coal fuel, briquettes and other forms of coal now being developed throughout the world in competition with water and electric power.

J. R. Beale, the centre of the hall was cleared and dancing was indulged in to the strains of a three-piece orchestra until after midnight by many of those present.

Miss Sandeman, of London, England, who had been visiting her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. S. Chambers, while on a tour of Canada, left on Tuesday to continue her travels.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(From the files of "The Kelowna Courier")

Thursday, November 12, 1908
"As a result of the miserable tri-weekly boat service inaugurated last week, Postmaster Bailey had 22 sacks of mail to handle on Monday and 19 on Wednesday."

"At the Board of Trade meeting last night, among other business, a resolution was passed requesting the Postmaster-General to restore to Kelowna a proper daily mail service."

A $30,000 issue of five per cent municipal debentures for provision of domestic water and light facilities was sold to Mr. W. C. Brent, of Toronto, at 90 and accrued interest.

The cement sidewalk recently constructed on the north side of Bernard Avenue cost 28 cents per square foot.

The vote polled at the federal election for Yale-Cariboo, as the electoral district was then termed, shows the progress made by Kelowna during the past twenty years. In November 1908, the total number of votes recorded at Kelowna was 250, divided between Burrell, Conservative, 152; Ross, Liberal, 87; and Bunting, Socialist, 11. Exclusive of absentees, the total vote polled at Kelowna in the provincial general election on July 18, 1928, was 1,541.

One of the finest motor camps in Western Canada is situated at Banff. The campsite is situated on Tunnel Mountain, one mile northeast of the town, and is fully equipped with electric lights, running water, camp shelters, stoves and other equipment for the comfort of the motor tourists.

TITLED TOUTS FOR TRADESMEN

Ways And Means Of Mayfair's Un-employment—"The Let Us Prey" Club.

(By Munro Blair)

Self-styled, "independent" ladies and gentlemen, who manage to live in lux-urious style by mysterious and shady devices, are an ever-growing nuisance in select society.

The least obnoxious of the class are cultured "touts" recruited from the ranks of impecunious title-holders and the "New Poor," who have sustained financial disasters in the past, but who still retain the entire into, smart, ex-clusive circles. Shorn of their former possessions, these distinguished victims of misfortune generally confine their business activities to recommending commercial products to friends, dis-creetly omitting to mention that, when-ever a sale is effected, they draw a commission.

This type is treated with tolerance and sympathy within the purlieus of Mayfair. At very short notice, these amateur canvassers can provide wealth-y acquaintances with anything, from motor-cars to excellent brands of wine, without arousing the suspicion that they are likely to benefit from the transaction. Over-eagerness may some-times betray them, but, even when it does, their enterprise is pardoned on humanitarian grounds, so long as the tradesmen concerned are reputable.

A more dangerous coterie is known jocularly to hostesses as the "Let Us Prey Club." The members of this or-ganization are exceedingly difficult to unmask, for they combine cunning with business acumen of a high degree. Suave and sleek, they rove amongst the idle, restless amusement seekers, using their social standing as a golden lever, and thus exploit with callous indiffer-ence friendships which have been delib-erately sought and made for purposes of gain.

A society lady of good breeding but no known income bombarded friends in England with letters written from an obscure resort situated along the Ital-ian Riviera. In phrases suggesting that Paradise must be a desert by compar-ison, she extols the splendours and de-light of a desirable but neglected haven which, in her extravagantly-stressed opinion, deserves to be "put on the map" as a rendezvous for leisured folk.

With a wealth of detail, this notori-ous member of the "Let Us Prey Club" describes the comforts and excel-lent cuisine of the hotel where she is staying, and urges friends to lose no time in joining her. A slight hint that charges are reasonably modest con-cludes these effusions which, appar-ently, have been broadcast at the rate of some dozens each day.

A recent distressing accident is, how-ever, calculated to check the flow of this new form of hostelry propaganda. A few days ago, in the post-bag of a noted leader of a fashionable set, an envelope addressed by one of these in-dustrious scribes contained, not the customary letter, but a copy of an agreement signed by an Italian hotel proprietor, undertaking to pay one thousand lire for every English guest attracted to his establishment. This in-criminating document would never have been gossiped about but for the fact that the lady who unwittingly de-patched it to London followed up her slip by writing to several people to whom it might have been forwarded asking for its immediate return.

Fake Antiques

Antique dealers have long been aware of the valuable assistance secret commission hunters can render, and are prepared to pay accordingly. It is a simple matter for commercially-minded residents of aristocratic neighbour-hoods to arrange for their dwellings to be "salted" with costly but spurious treasures which are actually for sale.

Occasionally, art dealers will also provide householders with funds to en-tertain and to show collections of wares to likely purchasers.

The extent to which this practice is being carried on at the present time is a scandal, for, more often than not, the "Old Masters" and antiques so displayed are "fakes" which could not be disposed of in the exclusive markets frequented by experts.

When genuine relics fall into the hands of up-to-date dealers, methods are varied a little. A millionaire whose hobby is the collection of old tapestries was recently informed that several sixteenth-century Gobelins had been discovered in an old manor house in the Midlands. The dealer explained to his patron, the millionaire, that all efforts to persuade the owner to sell had failed, and suggested a personal visit which he would try to arrange.

The rich connoisseur fell into the trap. On his arrival, he was introduced to a grey-haired gentlewoman and shown many wonderful treasures with which her abode was stocked. Having shown the tapestries which the million-aire was keen to buy, the lady gave sentimental reasons why she did not desire to part with them, but, after a while, agreed to accept a price which was distinctly handsome.

The rich collector was perfectly con-tented with his bargain; so were the dealer and the lady, for their artful scheme had worked without a hitch. True neither the tapestries nor the lady's credentials were other than stat-ed, but, had the millionaire been aware that his stately hostess was to receive a substantial fee for the part she played in the affair, his offer would not have been such a generous one. Actually, the tapes were originally purchased in France by the dealer. Realizing that his profit could be greatly increased by putting them on show in an old country mansion, rented for the purpose, he did not hesitate to deceive his affluent client.

Touting For Usurers

A little ready cash is often an urgent necessity to those compelled to keep appearances on slender resources in an expensive residential quarter. Consequently, the question of tactics is often of secondary importance. To be in league with some tradesman or art vendor is a slow but sure way out of the difficulty. It is also the most laborious. Case-hardened commission hunters have, however, stumbled on a more rapid means of replenishing their empty pockets, and despicable as they know this method to be, they frequently succumb to its temptation.

Quite lately, it has become evident that money-lenders are even more anxious than usual to extend their clientele, and, with this object in view have contrived a dastardly and sinister practice. For each new client introduced

B. C. Association Meets November 24

Secretary Dick Parkinson of the Interior Basketball Association has been advised that the annual meeting of the B. C. Association will be held on Saturday, November 24th, at 2 p.m., in the Province Building, Vancouver, at which delegates from all parts of the province will be present to discuss plans for the forthcoming provincial championships.

Delegates from the Interior were appointed at the annual meeting held recently in Vernon, and consist of A. Clark, Revelstoke, provincial Vice-President; Gordon McKay, Kelowna; H. Provins, Revelstoke; and A. Watson, Princeton.

GRASS HOCKEY

Return Match With Vernon Next Saturday

Commencing at 2.30 p.m. on Saturday, November 17th, Vernon will engage a local eleven in the return match for the game played in Vernon two weeks ago, and as this will be the first time for some years that grass hockey has been staged in Kelowna, it is anticipated that there will be a number of spectators to witness the latest addition to Kelowna's array of sports.

The Harvey Avenue field behind the premises of the Canadian Legion has been selected as the playing ground, and the team to represent the locals was chosen on Tuesday night as follows: W. Bredin (capt.), A. K. Loyd, B. Loyd, F. M. Keovil, H. G. M. Wilson, D. Oliver, A. Seon, B. Cookson, Berry, Parker and Fleck. Rev. C. E. Davis, himself a former player of no mean reputation, has kindly consented to officiate as referee, and J. B. Whitehead was selected as linesman.

In the first match of the season, the Kelowna team was successful in winning a keenly contested encounter by the narrow margin of a single goal, and Saturday's match, while the initial effort on the local grounds, should be well contested.

AYRSHIRES TRIUMPH AT LONDON DAIRY SHOW

Scottish Breed Captures Dairy Championship For Fourth Time

("The Bulletin and Scots Pictorial," October 25, 1928)

The Agricultural Hall, London, yesterday echoed with the shouts and cheering of Scottish cattle breeders when championship contest results were announced late in the afternoon.

The Ayrshire breed regained its title as the British dairy cow champion by winning the team trophy, which is the Bledisloe Cup, and also the supreme individual championship cup offered by the Dairy Farmers Association.

This dairy cattle championship is the subject of as much interest on the part of dairy farmers as is the football international with the urban masses. Hence the jubilation of the Scotsmen present at the Ayrshire success for the team of six.

This is the fourth occasion on which a team of Ayrshires has beaten all-comers at a London Dairy Show, the last occasions being in 1923, 1924 and 1925.

The cow which won the supreme individual championship for the Ayrshire breed yesterday was Mr. John N. Drummond's Bargover Eva from Hurlford. Although she stood only second in the ordinary inspection classes for the breed on Monday, she gained so many points for the weight and quality of her milk and for the butter yielded from her milk that she secured the supreme honour.

Asked by her boy friend if she felt like taking a walk, a local girl replied: "Why, I didn't know you had a car."

by society cash-hunters, usurers will now pay a fee which varies according to the amount advanced and the security available.

Younger members of the smart set would appear to be the easiest dupes in these conspiracies. A money gift from the borrower and a commission from the moneylender are the rewards of the traitorous intermediaries, and a close investigation has revealed the fact that women are the worst culprits. An overdue allowance, an admission of temporary financial embarrassment, and they are ready with the suggestion that relief can be speedily secured. Naturally, the dupe is pledged to secrecy.

The difficulties into which several scions of noble families have recently floundered have been traced by the painstaking inquiries of harassed parents to this source of private enterprise in Mayfair. As a result, social ostracism threatens not a few commission traffickers who have descended to depths which transgress the code of morality in a fashion so disgraceful.

LAST GOLF MATCH ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Large Entry And Keen Play In Final Event Of Season

Local golf enthusiasts turned out in force on Thanksgiving Day for the annual President versus Vice-President match, an event which has never failed to bring out large entries, it being the concluding match of the season. Members of the local club have always evinced keen interest in this event and results have invariably been close. This year there were over sixty entries, about thirty players composing each team, and the contest was so close throughout that the event ended in a draw.

The day was ideal and the course was in splendid condition for play. The new Union Jack, which had been presented to the club by Messrs. Walker & Sons, made a striking picture as it waved majestically in the breeze at the top of the flagpole and, in all, more favourable conditions could not mark the close of a successful season enjoyed by the Kelowna Golf Club.

A delightful luncheon was served at midday by members of the Ladies' Committee, and cups and various prizes were artistically arranged and displayed on a table in the large room of the Club House. In previous years it has been the custom to make presentations of trophies and prizes on Thanksgiving Day, but this year President H. F. Rees deemed it advisable not to devote the hours of a delightful day to this purpose, consequently presentations will take place at the annual meeting of the club next year.

In the afternoon, a large number of players entered in a two-ball foursome sweepstake competition, and many close games were played, making a draw necessary. Mr. D. Buckland and Mrs. McClymont won the first draw, and Messrs. W. W. Pettigrew and C. R. McLeod won the second draw.

Results of the Fall Flight Handicap competitions, which have now been completed, are as follows:

First Flight: H. G. M. Wilson beat Chester Owen.

Second Flight: C. Quinn beat T. D. S. McLaren. This event was very close all the way, it being necessary to play forty-five holes in order to determine the winner.

Third Flight: H. A. Willis beat W. W. Pettigrew.

Fourth Flight: Roy Staples beat W. C. Duggan.

Consolation Flight: R. Parkinson beat W. R. Trench.

A play-off was staged by winners of the various flights which was won by Roy Staples.

A record number of visitors—far more than in previous years—visited the Kelowna course during the summer, and many remarked upon its picturesque and the magnificent view which is obtainable from many vantage points. Natural hazards and other features of the course evoked favourable comment from golfers and tourists from India, Australia, England, United States and the sister provinces of Canada.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL GAME RESULTS IN DRAW

Penticton And Kelowna Score One Goal Each

Despite pouring rain and poor weather conditions, the Kelowna High School football team played a strenuous game against Penticton last Saturday on Rose's Field, Harvey Avenue. The boys proved to be fairly good mudders and, although the ground was slippery and kicking rendered uncertain, the match was evenly contested throughout. George Briscoe, the Kelowna captain, scored the first goal from close in, early in the second half. A few minutes before the final whistle Penticton equalized on a shot that rebounded from a scrimmage in the goal mouth. The game ended in a 1-1 draw. After the game the High School girls served an appetizing luncheon to the teams in the Domestic Science Room.

Kelowna: J. Benmore, D. Reed, R. Lupton, J. Stuart, J. Treadgold, H. Johnson, M. Meikle, L. Maranda, G. Briscoe, H. Aitken, P. Chaplin.

Orders have gone through, it is announced in an official statement to the Princeton Star, to District Engineer Mackay to prepare at once to put crews to work on the Princeton-Keremuc highway between Keremuc and Hedley. If weather conditions permit, it is the intention of the department to carry on work during the winter months in that section. This project may definitely be regarded as the beginning of active road progress in the Similkameen. The announcement, it is assured, comes as a direct result of the visit to the valley recently of Hon. Nels. Lougheed, Minister of Public Works, accompanied by Hon. W. A. McKenzie, Similkameen member and Minister of Mines.

Purpose Of National Parks

Canada's national parks exist to render the best possible services to Canada and Canadians. Their establishment and development are based upon the idea that the Dominion's greatness as a nation depends not so much upon her natural resources as upon the quality of her men and women.

the battle for right. They said to us: 'Live up to your principles as we have lived up to ours, and long though the way to peace may seem and weary though the days may be, remember the duty that you owe to us and carry on.' Abraham Lincoln expressed the same thought when he said: 'We owe an increased devotion to the cause for which they paid the last full measure of devotion.' So that as we strive, and to the extent that we succeed, it may be truly said of them, that they have not died in vain.

'Just as this cenotaph of ours is typical of many others in various parts of the Empire, so, as we gathered together today, we put ourselves in close communion with millions of others who are also met together to express their thanks to Almighty God for His mercy in bringing about the cessation of strife ten years ago. Our cenotaph is emblematic, not only of those who did not return, but of that vast assemblage of men who are still suffering, in one way or another as a result of what they endured; the maimed, the halt and blind, the mentally afflicted and those whose nerve and balance have never come back to them.'

'Our puny little senses do not permit us to understand the causes which brought about the Great War; nor the events which have transpired since, but we believe that, if we strive, the day will come when our vision will be brightened, when we shall understand some of these secrets; and happy will be for us if, through strife and suffering and through endeavour we can still retain our earnest faith that there is Infalible Wisdom and a firm guiding Hand. So that as we strive the day may arrive when a hand will be held out to us, and we shall hear the trumpets sounding for us on the other side.'

At the close of this impressive address two verses of "O Canada" were sung, and the assemblage went outside around the cenotaph, round which the Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and Wolf Cubs were paraded. A prayer, was read by Mr. Beale, the two minutes' silence was observed, and wreaths were deposited at the foot of the monument. Another prayer was read, the National Anthem was sung, and the proceedings brought to a close with the benediction.
